

Pier 400 is located on Terminal Island - Between the Gerald Desmond and Vincent Thomas Bridges.

If you are coming South down the 710 Fwy, keep toward the right (towards the port). Exit on the LEFT SIDE at the Terminal Island Exit, this takes you over the Gerald Desmond Bridge. You proceed through two traffic signals, exit on the right, at the Berth 401-406 Exit. After you go under the overpass, keep to the left. This takes you directly onto our 1.5 mile causeway on Navy Way. Follow the green visitor signs, you will go over the overpass and continue on until you see the 3 story administration building. There is a parking lot with a gate arm - push the button and the guard will open for you. Tell the guard you are there for the “Harbor Transportation Club Terminal Tour”. You will have to show identification to enter the building.

If you are coming South down the 110 Harbor Freeway, exit at the Vincent Thomas Bridge exit towards Terminal Island. The first signal is Navy Way, make a right and follow the green visitor signs to the 3 story administration building.
